

Training for products & Services

You agree to attend and be trained for any product that the Auto Industry Co-op Ltd represents. The member will be trained regarding that product and have the right knowledge about it. The Co-op will have training sessions that can be done via webinars or face to face. This is accessible via your dashboard.